Message from the President

Sorors and Fraters,

It is my sincerest wish that all of you thoroughly enjoyed your summer, and to each of you who attended your respective organization's national conference in the past few months, I hope that your experience was truly remarkable and that you garnered copious information and fellowship.

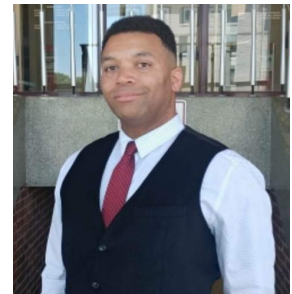

With the summer hiatus now behind us, and with our chapters having returned to regular business, your Metro Richmond Pan-Hellenic Council is, too, back at work, gearing up for a new season of fostering Divine Nine unity. As we return to the basics of promulgating collaboration in the form of both service opportunities and new social initiatives, we also reside in support of each of the eighteen chapters that comprise us and remain a hub for shared information to benefit us all.

Please be on the lookout for more to come. In the meantime, bless you in your continued efforts to progress us, together, forward.

Yours in Service and Unity,

Orlando Glasby

COMMITTEE REPORTS

- Collegiate Report:

- ◇ Virginia Commonwealth University (T. Moss) – Brother Moss noted that he and Brother Chavis attended the NPHC-VCU General Body Meeting on April 26; they have postponed its Scholarship Gala until sometime next year. They have elected the following new officers:

A planning meeting will be held on July 6 to discuss their roles and expectations for the 2023-2024 academic year. An informal process has begun on the Title IX status on Omega Psi Phi Fraternity. Alpha Phi Alpha/Theta Rho Chapter celebrated its 50 years on campus with a bench dedication ceremony on April 30th. Brother Moss is looking forward to the Collegiate Advisor transition role to be taken over by Brother Chavis.

- ◇ Virginia Union University (G. Burke) – Soror Burke noted that the NPHC-VUU Greek Unity Cookout scheduled for Friday, April 14, was cancelled due to inclement weather.
